

The new newsletter design is part of the effort to reenergize our unique and beautiful community. This is a time of landmark changes, significant challenges and distinctive opportunities that will dramatically define and affect the quality and character of our neighborhood. Coming together we can develop a plan to retain our sense of place and insure a healthy cohesive neighborhood. With your help we can have a positive impact.

General Neighborhood Information

Trash and weeds in empty lots, washes, ditches and alleyways? Graffiti on signs, buildings, fences or walls? Call the City of Tucson Department of Neighborhood Resources. And they can help get the situation resolved. Everyone calling will help improved or community. 791-4605 or visit online www.tucsonaz.gov/dnr

The next neighborhood meeting is Wednesday, August 8th 5:30 Sam Lena Library, 1607 South 6th Ave. Please join the conversation it's your neighborhood.
